Product information

- AgeGroup: SR
- Sizes: XS, S, M, L, XL, XXL
- Uses: Training, team wear, leisure activities related to hockey
- Fit: Designed as a jacket to serve as an extra layer during everyday sports activities

This type of jacket is especially practical for club players, coaches, or teams who don't want to carry their full gear with them all the time while moving between the arena, locker room, and travel. The black design is understated and pairs easily with existing team apparel. At the same time, the classic bomber style looks sporty without seeming out of place in a hockey setting.

When choosing a size, it's worth considering whether the jacket will be worn close to the body or with some room over training gear.
