The WARRIOR STREET OH HOODY SR NAVY is a hockey hoodie designed for the trip to the arena, for warm-ups, and for downtime during practice and games. The fabric blend of 70% Thermal Function polyester and 30% cotton combines functional comfort with a pleasantly soft feel, while the high collar provides a little extra protection around the neck on cooler days.

A hoodie that works seamlessly between the locker room, the bus ride, and ice time is especially practical for everyday club life. The textured chest area gives the design a sporty silhouette without making the look unnecessarily technical. The open front pocket keeps your hands warm when needed and quickly holds small items. For senior players and teams looking for a cohesive and practical additional layer off the ice, this top fits right into the hockey environment.

When choosing, the most important factor is finding the desired fit in the senior size.
