The WARRIOR CAP GOLF HORIZON is a functional cap for warm training days, the walk to the gym, or long hours on the sidelines of the course. Available in gray and made from water-repellent performance fabric, it offers exactly the features that make it comfortable for everyday sports activities in sunny and changeable weather.

- Material feature: water-repellent performance fabric
- Ventilation: perforated design for enhanced breathability
- Construction: 5-panel design with a structured fit
- Brim: pre-shaped brim
- Interior: integrated sweatband
- Size: One size fits most
- Color: gray

Especially for club players, coaches, or parents who spend a lot of time outdoors at tournaments and practices, a simple, functional piece of clothing is often essential. The perforated design promotes air circulation, while the sweatband on the inside wicks away moisture. In addition, the structured 5-panel design ensures a secure fit, and the pre-shaped brim provides extra protection against glare during everyday hockey training and games.

Thanks to its one-size-fits-all design, the cap fits many head shapes and can be easily incorporated into your daily sports gear.
