Sports Nutrition: Energy and Endurance

NUTRIATHLETIC NA BOOST APPLE-CHERRY is a sports nutrition product designed to boost energy and endurance, ideal for intense training phases, long workouts, and high-intensity game days. The combination of amino acids, vitamin C, taurine, and caffeine is designed for moments when a precisely dosed supplement is needed before or during athletic activities. The Apple-Cherry flavor offers a fruity taste.

- Product Type: Sports nutrition for energy and endurance
- Flavor: Apple-Cherry
- How it works: with L-tyrosine, L-arginine, L-citrulline, and taurine
- Additives: Contains vitamin C, caffeine, and the sweetener sucralose
- Caffeine content: 180 mg per 100 g or 72 mg per 100 ml
- Base: resistant dextrin from corn
- Special feature: Contains grape and apple seed extract

Especially during performance-oriented training or on busy match days, it's important to have a sports nutrition product that's easy to categorize. This formula doesn't rely solely on caffeine but combines it with amino acids and taurine. This makes the product particularly appealing to club players who make conscious choices regarding their training and endurance workouts and are not looking for an unnecessarily overloaded formula.

High caffeine content. Not recommended for children or pregnant or breastfeeding women.
