Especially at the junior level, a stick makes a big difference as technique, timing, and reaction time continue to improve. The HZRDUS 3X5 JR feels light in the hand and facilitates a quick transition from receiving the puck to shooting. This helps in the slot, on shots taken on the move, and when you need to control the puck cleanly under pressure. Added to this is the HZRDUS series' signature focus on speed and accuracy, which is particularly appealing to club players who train regularly on the ice.

When selecting a stick, it's worth taking a close look at the stiffness, bend, and blade orientation to ensure the stick matches the player's age, playing style, and current strength level.
