Especially in everyday club life, you need pants that work seamlessly whether you're changing in the locker room, heading to practice, or in the gym. The fabric blend combines the soft feel of cotton with the low-maintenance properties of polyester. It also features zippered pockets that keep small items from falling out easily, and a structured leg cut that gives the pants a sporty look without being unnecessarily bulky.

For junior sizes, it's worth taking a quick look at the appropriate length and desired fit to ensure the pants work well for everyday wear and during training.
