Product information

Shoe color: black

The ASICS GT-1000 13 GS KIDS is a running shoe for kids that's equally well-suited for everyday school life, club practice, and longer runs. As a stability shoe, it supports children who are looking for a cushioned yet reliable shoe for regular physical activity. In black, the model has a understated and simple look.

- Product Type: Stability running shoe for kids
- Technology: GEL cushioning for all-day comfort
- Cushioning: softer tuning for a more dynamic running feel
- Fit: Child-specific last for growing feet
- Adjustment: Size adjustment on the insole
- Durability: Wrap-up outsole in the mid-forefoot area and rubber toe seams
- IntendedUse: Various distances and regular physical activity
- Sizes: EU 33 to 39, including 33.5 and 34.5

Especially for children who are constantly on the move during training and rarely stand still—whether in the gym, on their way to school, or during leisure time—a shoe that not only feels soft underfoot but also features a sturdy forefoot construction is essential. The combination of soft cushioning, stable support, and reinforced areas on the sole and toes makes this model suitable for everyday use and durable. This is especially helpful when a pair of shoes needs to perform reliably week after week, not just for short outings.

The size guide on the insole helps with selection, as it makes it easier to assess changes in growing feet.
