The EXEL E-FECT 2 BLACK is a floorball stick designed for players who seek direct ball feel and a clear fit when choosing a shaft, both in practice and in matches. With a shaft length of 103 cm, a flex of 2.6, and a round grip profile, this model is designed for advanced youth players and club players who prefer a longer stick with a familiar grip.

Especially for regular indoor play, it's crucial how well the shaft, grip profile, and head work together. The round profile offers a classic feel in the hand and is well-suited for players who prefer a familiar feel when receiving, passing, and shooting. The 103 cm length is particularly appealing to taller juniors and adults who play with a longer reach. Combined with the MB blade, the stick is ideal for clean ball control and controlled plays during build-up as well as for direct shots.

In addition to shaft length, the most important factor in selecting a stick is choosing the correct stick side: left for right-handed players, right for left-handed players.
