EXEL MEGA 2.0 BLACK is a floorball stick designed for players who don't want to spend a lot of time searching for a replacement when their current stick is worn out. The L-Mega shape is designed for anyone who values a familiar feel for the ball and a clearly defined blade shape during practice and games. Finished in black, it blends seamlessly into many stick setups and is available for both left- and right-handed players.

A suitable replacement head is especially important in everyday club play if you want to maintain your usual setup. A familiar blade shape makes the transition easier after a change and ensures that ball control, passes, and shots don't require unnecessary readjustment. This makes this model particularly appealing to field players who play regularly and want to continue using an Exel stick with the feel they're accustomed to.

When selecting a blade, be sure to choose the correct direction—left or right.
