MCDavid ACTIV MULTISPORT ARM SLIPS BLACK are designed for training sessions and games where you need snug-fitting arm protection without much hassle. Especially in everyday hockey, when you're switching between warm-ups, the rink, and short breaks, a snug fit and a comfortable feel are essential.

- Product Type: Arm sleeves for multisport use
- Uses: Training, games, and warm-ups
- Fit: Close-fitting design for the arm
- Color: black
- Size: L
- Size range: Available in S through XXL
- Age group: SR

The main purpose of arm sleeves like these is to provide an even fit around the arm while interfering as little as possible with movement. This is particularly appealing to club players and regular exercisers who are looking for a compact, sports-oriented addition to their gear, even in changing conditions. The black version maintains a understated look and pairs effortlessly with common team and training colors.

In size L, this model is suitable for senior players. For a secure, non-slip fit, choose the size based on your desired, close-fitting style.
