Accessory size: One size fits most

The FATPIPE LEY WRISTBAND is a sweatband designed for training and games that quickly proves its worth in everyday floorball play by keeping your hands dry and helping you stay focused on the ball. The black-and-gold design looks clean and sporty, and the one-size-fits-all design fits most wrists.

- Product Type: Wrist sweatband
- Uses: Floorball, training, and matches
- Fit: One size fits most
- Color: black / gold
- Comfort: Fits snugly around the wrist for hassle-free use
- Benefits: Helps keep your wrist dry during play

Especially during intense sessions, indoors, or during longer substitutions, it's often the small pieces of gear that make a difference in the moment. A wristband like the FATPIPE LEY WRISTBAND falls right into this category. It sits right where sweat can get in the way during a game and complements your personal gear with minimal effort. For club players and youth players who train regularly, this is a simple addition that quickly fits into your usual routine.

The one-size-fits-all design is suitable for most wrists. If your wrist is very narrow or very thick, it's worth checking the fit to ensure it's comfortable.
