FATPIPE JAB FACTORY HOOK 2 DIAMOND WHITE is a floorball stick designed for players who prefer a clearly defined hook shape when shooting and making direct contact with the ball. For club players and ambitious trainees in particular, the choice of blade makes a noticeable difference in everyday play. Shape, size, and blade orientation influence how cleanly balls are received, controlled, and finished. The JAB Factory Hook 2 is a great option as a single blade when rebuilding an existing stick, replicating a familiar shape, or using the same blade geometry for both practice and matches. The size L places this model in a range that's frequently sought after by adult players.

Important when selecting: Choose the blade orientation that matches your playing side—left or right.
